CONDITIONS OF SALE.

FIRST.—The highest bidder to be the buyer ; and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the lot so in dispute, shall be immediately put up again and resold, provided the auctioneer cannot decide the said dispute.

SECOND.—No person to advance less than 1s. ; above five pounds, 5s. ; and so on in proportion.

THIRD.—In the case of lots upon which there is a reserve, the auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the seller.

FOURTH.—The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 5s. in the pound, or more in part of payment, or the whole of the purchase-money, if required ; in default of which the lot or lots so purchased to be immediately put up again and resold.

FIFTH.—The lots to be taken away and paid for, whether genuine and authentic or not, with all faults and errors of description, at the buyer's expense and risk within Two days from the sale ; GLENDINING & Co., Ltd., not being responsible for the correct description, genuineness, or authenticity of, or any default or defect in, any lot, and making no warranty whatever.

SIXTH.—To prevent inaccuracy in delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale, and the remainder of the purchase-money must absolutely be paid on the delivery.

SEVENTH.—Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited ; all lots uncleared within the time aforesaid shall be resold by public or private sale, and the deficiency (if any) attending such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale.

EIGHTH.—If any owner has placed a reserve on any lot, the auctioneers reserve to themselves the right to publish the fact and price at which it is reserved.

This officer entered the Navy in 1800, on board the "Hannibal" 74, Capt. Solomon Ferris, which ship, having grounded under the enemy's batteries, was compelled, after a long and deadly resistance, inflicting on her of a loss of 81 men killed and 62 wounded, to strike her colours, in the action off Algeciras July 6 1801. Being soon, however, restored to liberty, Mr. Harriot returned to England, and in the following November was discharged. He re-embarked in October 1803, on board the "Terrible" 74, Capt. Lord Henry Paulet, fitting at Portsmouth; and in May 1804, and March 1805, we find him joining the "Tigre" and "Renown" 74's, Capts. Benjamin Hallowell and Sir Richard John Strachan; in the last-mentioned of which ships he came home from the Mediterranean, immediately after his removal to her, and was paid off. He did not again go afloat until January 1808, when he succeeded in obtaining a berth on board the "Erebus" 18, Capts. Wm. Autridge, Henry Lyford, George Brine, John Forbes, and David Ewen Bartholomew, under whom he thenceforward served on the Home Baltic and North American stations, until September 1814.

Thomas Constant Paggett Morton entered the Navy September 2, 1802, as Sec.-cl. Boy, on board the "Argo" 44, Capts. Benjamin Hallowell and George Parker. employed in succession on the Coast of Africa and in the West Indies, Mediterranean and North Sea. While in the West Indies, in 1803, he co-operated in the reduction of the islands of Ste. Lucie and Tobago. Becoming Midshipman, in October 1804, of the "Proselyte" 28, Capts. George Nicholas Hardinge, George Sayer, and John Charles Woolcombe, he again in the early part of 1805, sailed for the West Indies in escort of a large convoy. From November in the latter year until October 1811. we find him serving in the "Illustrious" 74, Capts. William Shield, William Robert Broughton, Robert Worgan, George Festing, and Robert Maunsell, at first off Cadiz, and then in the East Indies, where, having assisted at the capture of Java, he removed to the "Dasher" sloop, Capt. William Kelly. On his return to England in March, 1812, he became Master's Mate of the "Thisbe" 28, bearing the flag of Sir Charles Hamilton at Deptford; and in the following June he was received in a similar capacity, on board the "Impetueux" 74, flag-ship off Lisbon of the late Sir George Martin. He was confirmed a Lieutenant, 15 October in the same year, in the "San Juan" 74, successive flag-ship of Rear-Admirals Sam. Hood Linzee and Hon. Charles Elphinstone Fleeming at Gibraltar, whence in the summer of 1814, he returned home in the "Shearwater" 10, Capt. John Townsend Coffin.
